

USA Property

“The UK experts that have never set foot in the USA ,yet making more than a REALTOR that does all the work?”

It is totally mind numbing that a person in another foreign country can earn a higher % then a fully licensed and regulated person that has taken time and studied the local real estate structure. The reason that this situation is allowed to exist is because of the UK investors that are ignorant of the facts . Here at USALocations we are trying to change all this and make sure that people investing into the USA are fully aware of everything before they invest. We believe that any property investment is a big decision and should be done only after serious and timely consideration of all the facts at your disposal. The thing most UK so called experts do is hide the address and or offer silly deals to blind you of all the real Facts.

Roadtrip Miami to Keywest

The best road trip ever! The sun the scenery and the entire atmosphere everything during the 3-4hr trip was excellent . I had to stop a good few times to take in the entire surroundings and to take Pictures .

After staying overnight in miami I was refreshed and eager to set off on the roadtrip . The sun was very warm and the car was full for my 3 hour plus drive to key west.

The drive was done and I enjoyed the whole trip . I stopped about every 30 minutes to enjoy the atmosphere and take a few pictures . I suggest that anyone else who has not done this roadtrip do the same because the views really are breathtaking to say the least.
